

Corporate Governance in East Asia and Japan

Masaharu Hanazaki

This lecture will examine the structure of corporate governance in the East Asian region and Japan. Starting with basic corporate governance framework, the lecture will survey Japanese model where the banking sector plays the key role and the East Asian model where family-controlled businesses are common. The lecture will also refer to the future prospects for corporate governance.