

International Conference

“Nuclear Safety after Fukushima: From European and Japanese Perspectives”

Date and Time: 22nd December, 2011, 10:30-17:00

Venue: “Matsukaze no Ma”, 3rd Floor, Josui Kaikan

Sponsored and organized by: EU Studies Institute in Tokyo, Graduate School of Law at Hitotsubashi University

Co-sponsored by: Hitotsubashi University

Language: English / Japanese (with simultaneous interpretation)

Programme

10:00 – 10:30 Registration

Opening Ceremony

10:30 – 10:35 Welcome Remarks

Professor Susumu Yamauchi, President, Hitotsubashi University

10:35 – 10:45 Opening Remarks

Mr. Hans Dietmar Schweisgut, His Excellency Ambassador of EU to Japan

10:45 – 11:15 Keynote Speech

Mr. Goshi Hosono, Minister of State for the Nuclear Power Policy and Administration, Japan

“Outlook of Japan’s Approach to Nuclear Safety”

Part I: Nuclear Safety after Fukushima: Japanese perspective

11:20 – 11:50 Presentation by Professor Yoshihiko Nishiwaki, Tokyo University

“Challenges to the Japanese Nuclear Energy Administration from the perspective of a technical expert

11:50 – 12:20 Presentation by Professor Shigeru Takahashi, Hitotsubashi University

“Challenges to the Japanese Nuclear Energy Administration from the perspective of a legal expert”

12:20 – 12:40 Discussion

12:40 – 13:30 Lunch

Part II: Nuclear Safety after Fukushima: European perspective

13:30 – 14:20 Keynote Speech by Mr. Patrick Reyners, Secretary-General of the International Nuclear Law Association

“What World Governance For Nuclear Safety : Lessons From Fukushima”

14:20 – 15:00 Presentation by Dr. Christian Raetzke, Lawyer, CONLAR-Consulting on Nuclear Law, Licensing and Regulation

“The European reaction to the Fukushima incident”

15:00 – 15:20 Discussion

15:20 – 15:40 Coffee Break

