

◆ Pre-Event : Refugee Studies Workshop
<10 : 30-15 : 15 Break 12:30-13:30>

Haruko Kudo (Graduate School of Social Sciences, Hitotsubashi University)

“Being Gay Enough for Asylum: The Issues of Sexual Orientation-Based Claims in the U.S.”

Minako Suzuki (Graduate School of Social Sciences, Hitotsubashi University)

“Resettlement Process of Ex-Indo-Chinese Refugees and Racialization of Refugee Politics in France”

Mari Tanaka (Graduate School of Social Sciences, Hitotsubashi University)

“Life in Exile : Employment of Burma-Born Refugees Living in Japan”

Risa Tokunaga (Visiting Fellow, the ANU College of Asia and the Pacific, the Australian National University)

“Onward Movements of the Rohingya Refugees: Is Malaysia Becoming a Transit Asylum Country?”

◆ Lecture <15:30-17:00 Open 15:15>

Moderator: Ruri Ito

Professor, Graduate School of Social Sciences, Hitotsubashi University

Jane Freedman

Professor, the Université de Paris 8

Specialist on Gender Equality, UNESCO

Persecution and Protection: Gender, Asylum and Migration in the European Union

Saturday, February 18, 2012

*Language: ENGLISH

Open: 10:15

Venue: Mercury Tower Rm.3505 (5thFl)

East Campus, Hitotsubashi University

(10-min walk from South Exit of JR Chuo-line KUNITACHI station)

For more information and to RSVP, contact Haruko Kudo at

<eusi.refugeestudies@gmail.com>